

Dr. Gábor Miklós Dakó

Dr. Gábor Miklós Dakó graduated at Janus Pannonius University, Faculty of Law in 1998, and then expanded his knowledge in brokerage and corporate law trainings. He has a legal bar exam. He started his professional career in 1998 at the State Money and Capital Market Supervision, then at a law firm specializing in capital market transactions, and later at the Hungarian Financial Supervisory Authority / Hungarian National Bank as a legal adviser, deputy head of department, head of department and CEO in the areas of capital market, licensing and market surveillance. From 2018, he was a lawyer specializing in capital markets at Kertész és Társai Law Firm, and from 2019 he is the Deputy CEO of OPUS GLOBAL Plc. He is the co-author of "Grand Commentary on the Investment Firms Act" as well as several dissertations on capital market topics, as well as participation in the professional committee activities of lecturers, capital markets and issuers. He speaks English.

Competencies:

- money and capital markets, IR;
- business and investor strategy and business model;
- development and operation of a management system;
- regulatory framework and requirements, compliance